About Threads of Life

On any given workday in Canada, 3 people will die from a job-related fatality, life-altering injury or occupational disease. These people leave behind families, friends and co-workers devastated by this tragic loss.

Threads of Life is a national charity dedicated to supporting families who have experienced a workplace tragedy. Our mission is to help families heal through a community of support and to promote the elimination of life-altering injuries, illnesses and deaths.

Threads of Life supports thousands of family members across Canada through our peer-support and community action programs.

I am so thankful for Threads of Life serving as an outlet for me over the years, as I have grown from a child to an adult. My grieving process is a journey that I will be on forever, and it's really hard to put into words how thankful I am that Threads of Life will be there with me

— Shelby Sandford

Event Guidelines:

1. Threads of Life encourages fundraising events that are compatible with our Mission, Vision and Values.
2. Event organizers wishing to use the Threads of Life name or logo on event promotional materials are required to obtain approval first. Threads of Life reserves the right to withhold the use of its name and logo from any event that does not align with our values.
3. Promotional materials must clearly state that the event is in support of Threads of Life and not an official Threads of Life event.
4. The event organizer is required to obtain all necessary permits, licenses and insurance for their event.
5. Taking commission, for any purpose, on funds raised as part of the event is prohibited.
6. The event organizer is responsible for all costs related to the event and will handle all monies until the official donation is submitted to Threads of Life. Event expenses are to be deducted before sending the proceeds to Threads of Life. Threads of Life will incur no costs unless otherwise agreed in writing prior to the event.
7. When tax receipts are requested, the event organizer is responsible for collecting names and complete mailing addresses for all donors. This information must be submitted to Threads of Life within 30 days of the conclusion of the event. Please see the Tax Receipting Guidelines on p.4 for more details.
8. Threads of Life issues tax receipts in accordance with Canada Revenue Agency guidelines. Please see the Tax Receipting Guidelines on p.4 for more details.
9. The event organizer is required to handle all monetary transactions for the event and to present the proceeds to Threads of Life within 30 days of the event or as agreed upon with Threads of Life.
10. Involvement of Threads of Life staff and volunteers will be at our discretion and will be based on availability, location and the nature of the event.
11. All personal information pertaining to donors, participants or others shared with Threads of Life is protected under the Threads of Life Privacy Policy.

Tax Receipting Guidelines

As a registered charitable organization, Threads of Life adheres to all Canada Revenue Agency rules and regulations when issuing charitable tax receipts. Please visit CRA Charities and giving for more information. The event organizer will be required to communicate accurate tax receipting information to event participants.

Tax receipts may be issued for donations of $20 or more if:

1. A benefit has not been received for the value of the donation (e.g. dinner, alcohol, entertainment, auction etc);
2. Threads of Life received a statement showing all revenue and expenses from the event;
3. The funds and a complete list of donor names, addresses and donation amount is received within 30 days of the event and/or by December 31 in the same calendar year that the event was held.

Threads of Life cannot issue receipts for:

1. Purchase of admission tickets or green fees;
2. Purchase of an auction or draw item;
3. In-kind goods and services donated to an event;
4. Sponsorship when a tangible benefit of advertising and promotion is received in return for payment.

Please note: Sponsors and donors of “in-kind” items may be provided a letter detailing the nature of their support upon request.
